INTRODUCTION

Our Luxury Trains – A Royal Journey through India’s Soul

India’s luxury trains redefine the art of travel, offering an enchanting blend of heritage, comfort, and grandeur. These iconic trains are more than just a mode of transportation — they are moving palaces that take travelers on a journey back in time, where royal traditions meet modern opulence. With exquisitely designed interiors, gourmet cuisine, personalized service, and carefully curated itineraries, each train offers a unique way to discover India’s rich cultural and spiritual tapestry. The Palace on Wheels, a symbol of Rajasthan’s royal legacy, offers a majestic voyage through the desert state's forts and palaces. The Deccan Odyssey takes you deep into the heart of India’s western and central treasures, from ancient caves to vibrant cities. The Maharajas’ Express, often considered one of the most luxurious trains in the world, provides an unmatched experience of India’s regal lifestyle with journeys covering the Golden Triangle, heritage cities, and sacred towns.

For those seeking spiritual enlightenment, the Mahaparinirvan Express offers a soul-stirring Buddhist pilgrimage route, tracing the footsteps of Lord Buddha across India and Nepal. The historic Fairy Queen, powered by the world’s oldest working steam locomotive, brings a touch of nostalgia to your journey. And the Mountain Trains of India, with their slow chug through scenic hillsides, offer a charming escape into the lap of nature and colonial-era charm.

Each luxury train journey is thoughtfully designed to provide a seamless blend of sightseeing, spiritual discovery, and royal indulgence. It’s not just about where you go, but how you get there — and aboard these trains, the journey is just as memorable as the destination.

Day 01 : Saturday Board the Deccan Odyssey at Mumbai - on to Nashik

Welcome aboard the Deccan Odyssey.

Your Maharashtra Splendor journey starts at approximately 15:30 hours at the Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus where you will complete the registration process and check in formalities. Thereafter, you will receive a traditional Indian welcome and a complementary drink.

You will then be guided to your charming cabins. As you settle in, the Deccan Odyssey will begin its journey from Mumbai to Nasik. Welcome drink and dinner on board.

Overnight on board the Deccan Odyssey.

Day 02 : Sunday Nashik

Today, the Deccan Odyssey will halt at the holy city of Nashik also known as the wine capital of the country.

Enjoy an early breakfast and take a walk along the serene Godavari ghats where you will witness the various Hindu rituals related to birth, death and initiation. Continue walking forward till you reach the lively markets by the ghats. The hustle and bustle here will sweep you off your feet with vendors selling everything from vegetables to lentils, dried seafood to cow dung cakes and many things in between.

Later, drive to the Grover Zampa vineyards, where an exclusive tour of India's finest wine producing facilities awaits you! Take a relaxing stroll through the vines laden with Chenin, Chardonnay and Shiraz grapes and get acquainted with the age old 'methodetraditionnelle' used to make one of the best known brands of sparkling wines in India. Thereafter, treat your taste buds with some delicious white, red, rose and sparkling wines in the company of a sommelier and try experimenting with wines as you pair them with your lunch.

Head back to the Deccan Odyssey as the train moves forth to Aurangabad.

Day 05 : Wednesday Kolhapur

Enjoy the colourful vistas of Maharashtra as the Deccan Odyssey zooms past the hinterlands to reach the city of hidden treasures, Kolhapur! Enjoy time at leisure as you indulge in a succulent breakfast. An early lunch is on the cards today after which you will disembark for a tour of the city!

Admire the architecture as you visit the New Palace museum, formerly a 19th octagonal palace. Made out of basalt and sandstone, this museum houses epic memorabilia of the Kolhapur rulers. Town Hall Museum is next up on the list! This sombre neo-Gothic building is famed for its front porch that is flanked by towers that have steeply pyramidal metal roofs.

It's shopping time, walk around the local markets looking for beautifully handcrafted Kolhapuri chappals that act as perfect take back home present. Later, enjoy tea at a special venue with Lavanya Sandhya, a vibrant folk performance.

Lastly, visit the 1300 year old Mahalakshmi temple, also called Shakti Pethas, or place associated with the Goddess Shakti, the companion of Lord Vishnu. After a traditional martial art performance called 'Mardani Khel' (Masculine games), head to the Deccan Odyssey for dinner. Breakfast, lunch and dinner on board. Overnight on board the Deccan Odyssey.

Day 05 : Wednesday Kolhapur

Say hello to India's smallest and the most happening state as your train halts at Goa. Since, it was Portuguese colony till 1961; Goa still shows strong traces of the Portuguese culture.

Admire the Portuguese style architecture as you visit Fontainhas, the Latin Quarters in Panjim! Embark on UNESCO World Heritage Walk around the winding alleyways of Fontainhas characterised by brightly coloured tiled-roofed Portuguese houses.

Next up on the list is Ribandar, the erstwhile capital of Goa. When in Ribandar, walk through the ancient churches and admire the ruins of the once sky-touching St. Augustine tower.

Thereafter, drive to the Sahakari spice plantation where a traditional Goan feast awaits! The 400 years of Portuguese rule clearly reflects in this Hindu origin meal that pays respect to the fruits of the Arabian Sea. Savour the shrimps, kingfish and mackerel and wash them down with some 'feni', a potent liquor made from cashew.

Last but not the least; get an insight to the Goan way of living with a visit to an old Portuguese house. It's time to return to the Deccan Odyssey for dinner as we bid adieu to Goa and depart for Ratnagiri.

It is said that the railway route through Konkan is one of the most scenic routes with the Arabian Sea glittering in the west and Sayadri hills looming in the east. On this journey, you will encounter quite a few tunnels as the tracks pass through the seemingly insurmountable Sayadri hills; an engineering marvel indeed!
